'Drowned Man' Back In Toronto Won't Comment

William Grey, 28, of London, Ont., who was supposed to have drowned in Oblong Lake last month but was later revealed by police to have been in the Rochester area, turned up at his parents' Broadway Ave. home last night.

Gray was reported to have been in an upset mental state. Today he refused to discuss his movements since he disappeared, pending an interview scheduled with Insp. Harold Graham of the criminal investigation branch, OPP, who had been investigating the mysterious absence of the father of two children.

This morning Gray left the house with his father and went to provincial police headquarters. No charge had been laid against him and it is unlikely he will face one. It was believed Gray drowned on an early-morning fishing trip August 7 while holidaying at his father's cottage. His cap was found floating in the lake and the outboard motorboat was on shore with the ignition on and the fuel tank dry.

Dragged Three Weeks

But several things led police and his father to believe he had not drowned, although dragging went on for three weeks and an airplane was used in the search for the body.

It was established that every other day he went fishing he wore shorts and took his dog. On the day he vanished, he wore trousers, left the dog at home and took his wallet.

Police had questioned a 25-year-old Rochester restaurant hostess whom Gray is said to have met in May, 1955, while attending a convention.—Toronto Daily Star.

Bread Box Burglar Gets 8 Years, Faces Forty More Charges

Lindsay, Sept. 25—Magistrate R. I. Moore yesterday sentenced Cecil Gillings of Toronto to a total of eight years on three charges of breaking, entering and theft from summer cottages in the Kinmount and Minden districts.

Gillings, who says he will appeal, is faced with some 40 more charges. His loot is said to be over $8,000 of which over $6,000 has been recovered.

Gillings was known as the bread box burglar because he carried off a bread box containing his loot.

OBITUARY

William Cowen

Ingoldsby United Church was filled to capacity on Thursday afternoon last when citizens from all walks of life and from every section of the county gathered to pay their final tribute to the late William Cowen. The large number of friends who were unable to gain admittance to the church heard the service on the lawn by means of a loudspeaker system.

The late William Cowen was born in Blairhampton the son of the late George and Elizabeth Cowen. He came to Donald some 37 years ago where in 1920 he chose his life partner, the former Olive Harrison. Just until a short time before his demise he had been employed as a foreman by the Department of Highways.

In politics the deceased was a staunch Conservative and he was also a valued member of Lochlin Loyal Orange Lodge. That William Cowen was held in high esteem by all who knew him was amply attested by the large numbers in attendance at the service.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. W. J. Robertson of the Haliburton Baptist Church who spoke consoling words to the bereaved.

Orange rites were conducted at the graveside in Ingoldsby cemetery where interment was made. The pallbearers, all members of the Orange order, were Bros. Harley Fader, Harold Dugan, Russell Burke, Harvey Minaker, Russell Robertson and Cecil Burke.

Left to mourn his loss, besides his sorrowing wife are one daughter, May of Donald, and four sons: Eldon, Bruce and Christie of Haliburton and Walter of Donald.

The sympathy of friends and neighbors throughout the entire area goes to them in their loss of a devoted husband and father.

Toronto he will leave for Cornwallis, N.S., where he will be stationed.

Allen's many friends here hope that he will like his new surroundings and will have a successful naval career.

L&F Plant New Forest Where Once Fire Raged

The largest tree planting effort in one place yet made by this district is now being conducted in Snowdon Township, on the Irondale-Gelert road. Here a work force of 40 men are setting out 340,000 pine and spruce on the rocky Laurentian Shield between Gelert and Bark Lake.

Several fires swept this area in times past, the last one being an 11,000-acre burn in 1949. This left the area devoid of trees for sources of seed from which a forest could be derived, and the only means of reforesting the country to its full value as a forest is to plant.

The area is so large that several years will be required for the plantable soils to be set out in trees, but a good start is being made this autumn.

Unfavorable weather has delayed the project, but it is hoped that we will finish by the middle of October. While there seems to be little soil on the Laurentian rocks, a happy feature of red and white pine is their ability to grow in shallow soils and produce a timber tree. This planting comes under project regeneration, a vast scheme started this year by the Department to increase the productivity of our forest land.

Hugh Simms Wins Local Golf Tourney

Thirty-seven golfers teed off under threatening skies on Sunday as the one day Haliburton Highland Golf Club tournament was played at the local golf course. The course was wet and the weather kept the entry from being much larger.

The Atlantic system was used and after the scores had been added up Hugh Simms of Minden came out as the winner.

Simms had a 33 par on the first nine holes and a 37 on the second round. Swann's handicap was three strokes and Simms handicap was six strokes giving Simms the low net and the trophy by one stroke over Swann and Rosenberg.

Note these three winners are all boys in their teens: Kenny Rosenberg 13, Wayne Swann 17 and Hugh Simms 19.

James Henry Gets Transfer To Midland

We are sorry to learn that Mr. James Henry, popular manager of the local Grigg Co. store in Haliburton, is leaving in the latter part of October for Midland, where he will be manager of the new store which Grigg's are opening there.

In the past years that Jim has been here he has made a lot of friends and he seemed to have the knack of greeting customers that came into his store in such a manner that they returned again and again.

During his stay here he found time to play hockey and serve on the executive of the Haliburton Huskies and with hockey at an all time low ebb here his presence and enthusiasm for this great game will be sorely missed.

Jim, unlike altogether too many businessmen, found time to attend and contribute to the work of the church. The congregation of St. George's church, of which he lately became a confirmed member, will greatly regret his departure.

It is with a feeling of sadness that we realize that all too soon we will be saying farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Henry and their little family, but we would be selfish indeed if we did not hope that they will be successful and happy in their new location.

Norm Maidens Gives Talk At Minden Rotary

The meeting was in charge of Reg. Welch, a director, in the absence of the president, Rev. Ross Woolley and the vice-president, Joe Mennill.

Notwithstanding the recent weather outlook we had one of our (hardy) summer visitors in the person of Chas. Plewman.

Quite a number are looking forward to the district conference at North Bay the next week end and for those not going the sergeant at arms levied a fine, no pardon, ask for a gratuity of 25c per head! In this club these "gratuities" go to the Rotary foundation, a fund set up in memory of the founder of Rotary for world-wide scholarships in post graduate work.

For a speaker, Norm Maidens called on himself to give what is known as the "classification talk" which is to tell about your own line of endeavor which in his case is electrical distribution, and from it we learn that he started with the Ontario Hydro in Lindsay under the late Walter Reesor at a time when $45 a month rated the name of salary. While describing the system in those days when one man covered quite an area, down to the advent in Haliburton county which took root on 40 hardy souls in the Minden area who signed contracts in August 1935 of which your writer is No. 11 and who first received the "juice" on December 21 of that year. In the 20 odd years that have elapsed since then this number has grown to 4,700 customers served by 465 miles of line. Norm sure picked a growing concern to work for.

—Thos. W. Brignall.

Huskies Fold If More Interest Not Shown

The Haliburton Huskies called a hockey meeting last Thursday night at the Haliburton Legion hall. Only three players and one from the executive were on hand to get the season away to an early start.

This first get-together was anything but encouraging and if this first turnout is any indication of what hockey will be at the local ice house this winter, don't look for too much.

Let's Face the Facts

Very shortly another meeting will be called and it is the hope of the players that a large number of businessmen will come out and back this team up and give Haliburton a contender in the OHA. If this support isn't fast coming the Haliburton Huskies will fold this season.

If the Huskies do pack it up for this year the chances are that the arena will be closed, and if the arena is closed the sorry part will be that children of Haliburton and surrounding district will just be out of luck.

It's a well known fact that the Haliburton Huskies are the boys that bring in the money and keep the arena doors open. Without them the arena would run at a terrific loss.

But maybe it would smarten everyone up if Haliburton didn't have an intermediate team for one season. It's the same old story "you never miss the water until the well goes dry."

Magistrate Moore Hands

Stiff Fine to Bancroft Man

For "Having For Sale"

Walter McPhee, of Bicroft, near Bancroft, was fined $300 and costs by Magistrate R. I. Moore when he was found guilty of "having for sale."

Evidence produced by law enforcement officers was to the effect that McPhee was in the habit of holding Saturday parties for his friends and that some of the frequenters were minors.

Magistrate Moore said in his summing up that he would not stand for the supplying of liquor to minors at any time although he admitted it is sometimes hard to distinguish a minor from an adult. "I have no sympathy whatever for those who supply liquor to these young men," said his worship.

His worship insisted that the fine be paid forthwith or in default 30 days in jail.

The defence claimed that although a number of men at the mines enjoyed a Saturday night party that McPhee failed to receive any profit. In fact, it was stated, the young man owed for his house rent and other bills. Most of the men in the place were from Quebec.

Something For Nothing

WE ARE ASKED from time to time: "What has come over Haliburton?" People asking this question are concerned over the number of break-ins that we have had here during the past few months.

Now it is not our intention to minimize these offences nor to claim that Haliburton is the best place to live under the sun, but when we pick up the papers and hear over the radio of an old crippled lady being beaten and robbed of $2 and we read of another case where a man, who had just cashed his old age pension cheque, was set upon, knocked down, kicked in the face to the extent that it required seven stitches to close the wound, we feel that there are lots worse places than this village in which we live. After pondering over these brutal acts we have come to the conclusion that there are an increasing number of hoodlums in this country who will resort to any means in order to obtain a living except honest toil.

The cheap stock salesman who will flim-flam people out of their hard earned life savings by selling them worthless stock, the often brutal hold-up men and the petty pilferers who, under cover of darkness, break in business places to rob some honest merchant of his hard-earned profits, are all actuated by the same motive that is to obtain something for nothing.

Twenty-five years ago such things as break-ins were unheard of occurrences in so far as this fair village was concerned. In fact half the people did not even bother to lock their doors at night. Times have really changed now—even locked doors and barred windows are of little avail against these early morning marauders.

It is too bad that we are not able to convince the rising generation that those imbued with the idea of obtaining a living without honest effort are headed for a career of crime which will mean they will end their lives in jail or on the gallows.

Bandsman Honored At Brodhagen Day Held In Milverton

Milverton — Representatives of 12 bands in western Ontario, numbering more than 80 in all, joined together here Sunday to present a composite band program honoring David Brodhagen, Stratford, a bandsman for the past 68 years. All of the bands represented have had help at various times from Mr. Brodhagen.

Threatening clouds, present all day, spilled rain just as the outdoor program at the Milverton Agricultural Park got under way, and a power shut-off prevented a continuation of the concert in the arena. Audience and bandsmen quickly dispersed, and the program was presented indoors at the arena, following the supper hour.

Those bands represented were the Mitchell Band, Dashwood Band, Waterloo Music Society, Tavistock Citizens' Band, Brodhagen Band, New Hamburg Band, Seaforth Highlanders, St. Mary's Citizens' Band, Stratford C.N.R. Band, Stratford Boys' Band, London and Oxford Fusiliers of Woodstock, and the Milverton Red Seal Band. Chairman of the concert and leader of the program numbers was Fred Rudd, Preston, conductor of the Red Seal Band. Other bandmasters who conducted in various numbers were Geo. Ronnenberg, Mitchell; Ernest Seltzer, Tavistock; Albert Heinze, Brodhagen; Harold Bingeman, Woodstock; Art Gibbons, New Hamburg; Dick Rule, St. Mary's; Percy Gibbons, Stratford, and John Manion, Preston, former bandmaster of the Red Seal Band.

An address of welcome to visiting bandsmen was given by Willoet Kelterborn, reeve of Milverton. Mr. Kelterborn praised bandsmen generally for their willing and faithful contributions in the field of music, and he paid special tribute to Mr. Brodhagen for his many years of unfailing service. Further comments on Mr. Brodhagen's meritorious record as a constant friend and helper of so many bands were delivered by Fred Mogk, Waterloo, who has been connected with band activities in this area for many years.

To lend emphasis to "Brodhagen Day," the program included a cornet solo by Mr. Brodhagen, and a cornet trio composed of Mr. Brodhagen, his son Clarence of Stratford, and William Reis of the Red Seal Band. Clayton Brodhagen, another son, was featured as first trombonist in a trombone specialty "A Bull in the China Shop."

An outstanding contribution to the program was made by the Mount Forest Pipe Band under the leadership of Pipe Major John Gillespie and Drum Major Walter Edwards.

Climax of the entertainment was the presentation of a knee-hole desk to Mr. Brodhagen, from all of the participating bands. The address was given by Fred Mogk and the presentation made by George Ronnenberg.

Some music on the program consisted of Colonel Borgey March, O Worship The King hymn, Orpheus Overture, selections from Oklahoma, a South American rhythm Mamboanga and The Thunderer March.

The Haliburton County Brass Band donated a small amount of money to the event in appreciation of the assistance Mr. Brodhagen has given the band in the past.

TODAY. 1 out of every 6 people are admitted to a hospital bed . . . 1 of 6 . . . every year! It used to be only 1 of every 85 people who received bed care in any given year.

Certainly, both reasons are adequate proof that our hospital picture has altered beyond all recognition. It is a well recognized fact we desperately require many additional beds, facilities and services. So please remember, all of us must help—together, we will succeed in building the addition which we so urgently require.

TREE PLANTERS AT WORK IN COUNTY

A month or so ago we announced the beginning of a large scale effort north of the town of Haliburton to permit the regeneration of yellow birch, and at this time a progress report seems appropriate.

We have had to feel our way in the development of techniques, but from a small beginning the program has developed until we have now about 20 men in the camp, and nine bulldozers of various sizes and breeds. Snorts and roars are heard from these behemoths throughout the day, and in their wake lies a well churned up seed bed, ready for the fall of yellow birch seed during the coming months, and at the time we will write "the end" to a large scale program of good forestry for the year.

We have been asked to state our requirements for red spruce for planting purposes for 1960 and thereabouts. Incidentally the red spruce is a relatively rare species within our province, but is considered to be somewhat more suitable for planting in shady spots than is its close relative, the white spruce. We have answered the inquiry and now find ourselves with the task of collecting the seed. This too is going on in the demonstration area north of Haliburton, and the bushels of cones when picked will leave here for Angus, Ont. There, special equipment is available for extracting the seed from the cones, and the seed will be forwarded to one or more of our nurseries, where the young stock will, during the next few years, be raised to the appropriate stage for planting out.

A stand conversion program begins this week, involving the planting of 30,000 white spruce in areas where pure hardwood now exist. Again the area involved is the demonstration tract in Bruton Township, north of Haliburton, and it is anticipated that work will continue for some two weeks.

The mixing of species tends to reduce the hazards of disease, insects and fire, and it is hoped that our children's children's children may benefit from our present work.

Wayne Griffin, who has been visiting his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Griffin, has returned to Edmonton to resume his studies at the University of Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Pritchard and daughter, accompanied by Earle Cooper and Mrs. B. Linton, motored to Toronto to attend the mammoth rally service of witness in Maple Leaf Gardens last week end.

Many friends wish a speedy recovery to Bert Bryant who had a misfortune and fell, breaking his wrist. A speedy recovery is also wished to Wrighty Deacon who has blood-poisoning in his hand.

Our Community Guild had a meeting last Tuesday evening at the Homestead, which is owned by Mrs. Thompson.

MINING REPORT

Discovery of two presumptive ore bodies is the result of the summer's drilling operations at the Nemeiben Lake, Sask., property of Fano Mining and Exploration, Inc. Promise is such that a second drill is being put into operation at once.

Fano's hole No. 7, below the 500 foot level, this summer showed 85 feet well mineralized with 45 feet containing better than 1% nickel-copper.

A hole 100 feet to the west, previously drilled by International Nickel under a working option, showed some 35 feet with better than 1% nickel-copper at the same horizon. Relation of results from these two holes could indicate an estimated ore body of several hundred thousand tons.

Hole No. 9 has encountered "ore" in a section of 17 feet and hole No. 10, some 50 feet away, has "encountered ore" in a section of 25 feet, according to a telegram just received by Gordon Copeland, mining engineer, Toronto. Cores are being assayed.

About 3,000 feet of drilling has been done this year on only the northerly half of one of Fano's 36 claims. That is, some exploration has been undertaken on only about 1% of this 1,800 acre property which is a pyroxenite plug that exhibits "an impressive magnetic anomaly" with gamma readings of 2,000 to 2,800 over more than three square miles. Mineralization was encountered in other holes.

Fano's Nemeiben Lake property, 16 miles from the village of La Ronge, was purchased earlier in the year for 500,000 shares of Fano treasury stock. Fano began the summer's operation with $135,000 cash in its treasury of which $60,000 was provided by Minden Investments Ltd. which purchased 200,000 Fano treasury shares.

Fano owns three other properties in the Blind River uranium camp; in Hutton township near Sudbury; near Bathurst, N.B., and has an option on a copper prospect in the Bruce Mines, Ontario, area.

committee was in attendance and also played and helped Black Plume hit the target 11 times, who were tied for the most hits with Peter Curry's Red Fang six.

At the closing of the meeting after the mouse howl and Lord's Prayer, Chris Carroll and Jim Scheffee added the points for the month of September.

Black Plume won the points for the first month of meetings with 328 points. Congratulations to these boys who all of last year were only able to win once in 10 months competition. Keep up the good work and good hunting.

Cubs Hollow

This week's meeting was opened by the leader of Brown Tip six, Jim Scheffee.

The inspection was handled by Con Little, Scotty LaRue and the cubmaster. Special attention was taken on nails this week and we find that they are very good except for some that are still chewing them.

In star work the cubs had relays on the sheet bend, reef knot and bowling, each worth 20 points for the winners. Brown Tip won the first, Black Plume the second and Brown Tip the third.

Commencing this week's meeting we are having a question concerning cubs for one cub in each six. Each cub that answers his question right receives 10 points.

This week all received 10 points except Black Plume—they received five.

The evening was highlighted by a game of "dive bombing." Mr. Walter Webb, secretary-treasurer of the scout
